

Talk to your friends and fellow Watt Members who have never been to a convention or haven't attended in a while and plan to meet in St. Cloud, MN for the 2011 Watt Collectors Annual Convention on May 26-28, 2011 (Thursday through Saturday).

Convention is a great time to catch up with your friends and make new friendships with fellow Watt Collectors, visit the area attractions and antique shoppes and find a treasure or two to add to your collections!

The Holiday Inn & Suites Hotel will be our hosts for the upcoming 2011 convention and will start taking hotel reservations on July 1st. Make your room reservations today – let's fill the hotel with Watt Pottery Members and Room Sales!
